

On 21st January, 2018 a state level meeting was organized at Chunakhali Co-operative Office at Chunakhali, Murshaidabad by joint committee of different science and environmental groups. More than 30 participants attended. The participants discussed their achievements and failures regarding environmental protection activities. Mr. Subhapratim Roychoudhury represented MASUM spoke on organizational experiences related to its activities in erosion affected areas of Murshidabad and requested for solidarity from environment activists.