

Legal Awareness Camp organized by MASUM at Karala Chit (an erstwhile enclave), District-CoochBehar

An interactive meeting was held on 19 September by the members of MASUM with the residents of Falnapur Chit (enclave), District-Cooch Behar. The residents of the said area discussed and expressed their problems they are facing after Falnapur chit became a part of India. Significant numbers of women were present in the meeting.

Besides the above, MASUM continued to provide legal support in the pending criminal cases against the victims of torture and the criminal cases filed by the victims against the perpetrators in uniform as a part of regular legal activity.
