

Legal Awareness Meeting

Legal services Day observed by MASUM on 9th November 2016. Banglar Manabadhikar Suraksha Mancha (MASUM) and Mathabhanga Sub-Divisional Legal Services Committee jointly organised one legal awareness camp with the erstwhile enclave dwellers of Nalgram, Falnapur and Jongra, police station-Sitalkuchi, District-Cooch Behar. In the meeting the Additional District and Sessions Judge of Mathabhanga Sub Divisonal court Mr. Ajay Kumar Singh, Secretary of Mathabhanga Legal Services Committee Md. Raushan Ali, Circle Inspector of Police of Mathabhanga and volunteers of MASUM were present. A large number of enclave dwellers were present. The speakers of erstwhile enclave dwellers of Nalgram, Falnapur and Jongra narrated how they were deprived of citizenship, titles of their land, electricity, road, health, education and void of identity. In the meeting members of Mathabhanga Legal Services Committee narrated how the erstwhile enclave dwellers can take legal assistance from them. Among the erstwhile Enclave dwellers Mr. Brindeswar Barman and Mr. Bijendranath Barman explained their problems before them. The volunteers of MASUM also shared their experiences during work in those areas. Thanks to Mathabhanga Legal Services Committee for showing their concern to these marginalised groups.

