

Human Rights Day Observance

MASUM from its inception is observing 10th December as International Human Rights Day with other human rights fraternity all over the world. The declaration of UDHR (Universal Declaration on Human Rights) on 10th December 1948 has been accepted as an enthusiast achievement by human rights fraternity. This year MASUM has taken up the issues of freedom of expressions and beliefs and constant attacks by the state parties upon the human rights defenders and dissent voices and made commitment to initiate a concerted effort through partnering with different civil society organizations to address the malevolence and ensure the freedoms intact for the people. On 10th of December, Human Rights Fair has been organized at the vicinity of Academy of Fine Arts 'Mukta Mancha' from 12.00 pm; and that continued till the late evening. During the fair different civil society organizations and forums displayed their publications and visuals and cultural programmes by performers from Kolkata and districts were performed. Mr. Hiumangshu Kumar, Dr. Tushar Chakroborty and Mr. Kirity Roy were the important speakers. Mr. Pratul Mukherjee performed with his inspiring songs and the meeting was inaugurated by Justice Malay Sengupta; president of MASUM and conducted by Mr. Biplab Mukherjee.
