

On 17 January 2017 MASUM hold one meeting with villagers of Falnapur enclave (erstwhile). A sizeable number of villagers attended and shared their grievances.

Many people narrated how they were denied from ration cards, roads, electricity, latrines, 100 days work, and in every way of life and livelihood.

After discussion a long drawn plan of action was chalked.

A good number of women participated actively with suggestions.