

MASUM organised a discourse today on human rights issues at Sanaullah Mancha; Malda. Nearly 50 participants from different NGOs and CSOs participated in day long discussion. A sizable number of women also attended. Para Legal Volunteers and people from bordering areas of district participated in the discussion. Biplab Mukherjee from MASUM made introductory remarks and Mr. Kirty Roy; secretary MASUM as resource person spoke on Constitutional guarantees, failure of criminal justice system, continuity of torture by police and para military and fact finding procedure. Later, he responded and answered the questions of participants.

Participants vowed to support the initiatives of MASUM in Malda district.